

NAGARJUNA FERTILIZERS AND CHEMICALS LIMITED

BRITISH SAFETY COUNCIL'S MERIT AWARD FOR THE YEAR 2010

Nagarjuna Fertilizers and Chemicals Limited, has won the prestigious International Safety Award for its Health & Safety performance at its Kakinada manufacturing facility. The award was given by one of the world's leading advocates of workplace Health & Safety, the British Safety Council, UK and is supported by the Health & Safety Executive.

The award acknowledges the commitment that the company has made to improving corporate Health & Safety and rewards the success of achieving high safety standards.

NFCL was declared as the winner out of 600 applications received from across the world, which is a true testament to NFCL's dedication to the Health & Safety at its workforce.

The International Safety Awards are open to all industries and sectors from across the globe and are adjudicated judged by an independent panel of experts. The award is perceived as an excellent motivator for businesses looking to attain high standards in workplace Health & Safety.

NFCL, Kakinada has achieved the British Safety Council's International Safety Award with Merit for the year 2010. They mentioned in their letter that "The award of a merit clearly demonstrates your commitment to the health, safety and well-being of your workforce'.

Along with the award British Safety Council, UK the company is entitled to use the "BSC Merit Award Logo-2011" in all business correspondence as per the guidelines.